Steve Broadbent Joins Race for Johns Creek City Council – Post 2

(Johns Creek)—Steve Broadbent declared today he will campaign for the open Johns Creek City Council seat being vacated by Dan McCabe.

“The citizens of Johns Creek have been fortunate to have had Dan McCabe on the Johns Creek City Council since the city’s founding. Dan has many outstanding achievements to his name and his leadership on the Council will be missed.” said Broadbent. “I am looking forward to the campaign and demonstrating to the citizens of Johns Creek that I possess the skills and experience required to follow Dan.”

Broadbent is active in his community, a successful businessman, and an experienced leader with proven skills. He is a successful small business owner where he provides specialized consulting services to publicly-traded and large, privately held corporations. Previous business experience includes 11 years with AT&T where he last served as a Sales Vice President in Los Angeles.

Additionally, Broadbent was appointed by President George H.W. Bush to serve as a Deputy Assistant Secretary in the U.S. Department of the Treasury where he worked throughout the Bush Administration. Steve began his career as an officer in the United States Navy where he served in assignments at sea in the Mideast and in Washington, DC. He retired from the Navy as a Commander following 22 years on active duty and in the Navy Reserves.

Broadbent said, “I will bring to Johns Creek the experienced leadership required for the continued success of the city. I look forward to meeting the voters across Johns Creek in the coming weeks and earning their votes as I discuss my plans and vision for the city.”

Broadbent’s campaign website, www.voteBroadbent.com, will be launched shortly.
